

Select All

To select all search results on a page, click to place a check mark in the check box in the gray shaded column header (upper left of the screen) or click the "Page" link at the top of the page. If you have multi-page search results and want to select them all, click the "All" link at the top of the page.

To remove your entire selection, click the "None" link.