

Houzz on REcolorado.com

- On the REcolorado.com property details pages, you'll see new functionality related to Houzz, a popular home design and remodeling site.
- The new Houzz button links you to REcolorado's Houzz profile.

- The slideshow widget allows you to browse home design photos from Houzz directly on REcolorado. Clicking the designer's name takes you to directly to that photo on Houzz.

Listing Input Updates

- Co-listing agents will now have visibility to their Incoming status listings, allowing them to edit their listing before it is submitted to Active status.
- You can now enter an agent who is in Suspended status as the Selling Agent when changing a listing to Sold status. This change will assist with data accuracy for Selling Agent information.
